15 at his birth. 15 for he shall be great in the sight of the lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the holy ghost, even 16 from his mother's womb. 16 and many of the children of israel shall he turn to the lord their 17 god. 17 and he shall go before him in the spirit and power of elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people 18 prepared for the lord. 18 and zacharias said unto the angel, whereby shall i know this? for i am an old man, and my wife well 19 stricken in years. 19 and the angel answering said unto him, i am gabriel, that stand in the presence of god; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee 20 these glad tidings. 20 and, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be 21 fulfilled in their season. 21 and the people waited for zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so 22 long in the temple. 22 and when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, 23 and remained speechless. 23 and it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his 24 own house. 24 and after those days his wife elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, 25 saying, 25 thus hath the lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my 26 reproach among men. 26 and in the sixth month the angel gabriel was sent from god unto a city of 34 then said mary unto the angel, how shall this be, seeing i know not a man? 35 and the angel answered and said unto her, the holy ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the son of god.

36 and, behold, thy cousin elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 for with god nothing shall be impossible.

38 and mary said, behold the handmaid of the lord; be it unto me according to thy word. and the angel departed from her.

39 and mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of juda; 40 and entered into the house of zacharias, and saluted elisabeth.

41 and it came to pass, that, when elisabeth heard the salutation of mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and elisabeth was filled with the holy ghost: and she spake out with a loud voice, and said, blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. and whence is this to me, that the mother of my lord should come to me? for, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. and blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the lord. and mary said, my soul doth magnify the lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in god my saviour. for he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. and it came to

done to me great things; and holy 50 is his name. 50 and his mercy is on them that fear him from 51 generation to generation. 51 he hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
52 52 he hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them 53 of low degree. 53 he hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.
54 54 he hath holpen his servant israel, in remembrance of his 55 mercy; 55 as he spake to our fathers, to abraham, and to his 56 seed for ever. 56 and mary abode with her about three months, and 57 returned to her own house. 57 now elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she 58 brought forth a son. 58 and her neighbours and her cousins heard how the lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced
