1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

37 him. 37 and when they had found him, they said unto him, all men 38 seek for thee. 38 and he said unto them, let us go into the next towns, that i may preach there also: for therefore came i forth.
39 39 and he preached in their synagogues throughout all galilee, and cast out devils. 40 and there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, if thou wilt, 41 thou canst make me clean. 41 and jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, i will; be 42 thou clean. 42 and as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he 43 was cleansed. 43 and he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent 44 him away; 44 and saith unto him, see thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy
