

<sup>1</sup>To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.<sup>2</sup>Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.<sup>3</sup>There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.<sup>4</sup>Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,<sup>5</sup>Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.<sup>6</sup>His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.<sup>7</sup>The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.<sup>8</sup>The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.<sup>9</sup>The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.<sup>10</sup>More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.<sup>11</sup>Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.<sup>12</sup>Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.<sup>13</sup>Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.<sup>14</sup>Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.
