when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. <sup>16</sup>And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; <sup>17</sup>And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. <sup>18</sup>And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, <sup>19</sup>And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. <sup>20</sup>And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred. <sup>21</sup>And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? <sup>22</sup>For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. <sup>23</sup>If any man have ears to hear, let him hear. <sup>24</sup>And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given. <sup>25</sup>For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. <sup>26</sup>And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; <sup>27</sup>And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. <sup>28</sup>For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.<sup>29</sup> But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.<sup>30</sup> And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?<sup>31</sup> It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:<sup>32</sup> But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.<sup>33</sup> And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.<sup>34</sup> But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.<sup>35</sup> And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.<sup>36</sup> And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.<sup>37</sup> And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.<sup>38</sup> And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?<sup>39</sup> And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.<sup>40</sup> And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?<sup>41</sup> And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?
