And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.<sup>5</sup>And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.<sup>6</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramothgilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.<sup>7</sup>And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?<sup>8</sup>And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.<sup>9</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.<sup>10</sup>And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.<sup>11</sup>And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD,

Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.<sup>33</sup> And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.<sup>34</sup> And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.<sup>35</sup> And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.<sup>36</sup> And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.<sup>37</sup> So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.<sup>38</sup> And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.<sup>39</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?<sup>40</sup> So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.<sup>41</sup> And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.<sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.<sup>43</sup> And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.<sup>44</sup> And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.<sup>45</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>46</sup> And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land.<sup>47</sup> There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king.<sup>48</sup> Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Eziongeber.<sup>49</sup> Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.<sup>50</sup> And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.<sup>51</sup> Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.<sup>52</sup> And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:<sup>53</sup> For he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.
