

¹Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.² And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.³ Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.⁴ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.⁵ Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.⁶ Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.⁷ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?⁸ Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.⁹ The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.¹⁰ Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.¹¹ If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong
