

¹My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.²Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.³Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.⁴Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:⁵That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.⁶For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,⁷And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,⁸Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,⁹In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:¹⁰And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.¹¹(She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:¹²Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)¹³So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him,¹⁴I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.¹⁵Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.¹⁶I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.¹⁸Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.¹⁹For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:²⁰He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day
