

¹Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.²Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.³For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.⁴But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.⁵For every man shall bear his own burden.⁶Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.⁷Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.⁸For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.⁹And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.¹⁰As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.¹¹Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.¹²As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.¹³For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.¹⁴But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.¹⁵For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.¹⁶And
