

<sup>1</sup>And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.<sup>2</sup>And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.<sup>3</sup>Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.<sup>4</sup>I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.<sup>5</sup>So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?<sup>6</sup>And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.<sup>7</sup>Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.<sup>8</sup>And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.<sup>9</sup>And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.<sup>10</sup>He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.<sup>11</sup>If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?<sup>12</sup>And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?<sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.<sup>14</sup> And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.<sup>15</sup> And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.<sup>16</sup> The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.<sup>17</sup> And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.<sup>18</sup> Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.<sup>19</sup> There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:<sup>20</sup> And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,<sup>21</sup> And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.<sup>22</sup> And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;<sup>23</sup> And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.<sup>24</sup> And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I
