

¹Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.²And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.³And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.⁴Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,⁵And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,⁶And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,⁷And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphalet.⁸And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.⁹And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.¹⁰And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.¹¹So they came up to Baalperazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baalperazim.¹²And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.¹³And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.¹⁴Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and
