

¹In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.²And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.³And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.⁴And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.⁵And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.⁶And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.⁷And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.⁸And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.⁹And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.¹⁰And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.¹¹And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.¹²And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.¹³And the evening and the morning were the third day.¹⁴And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.²⁸ And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.²⁹ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.³⁰ And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.³¹ And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.
