

¹Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,²Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?³Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?⁴For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.⁵But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;⁶And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.⁷Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?⁸It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?⁹The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.¹⁰If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?¹¹For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?¹²For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass' colt.¹³If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;¹⁴If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.¹⁵For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:¹⁶Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:¹⁷And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.¹⁸And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig
