him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.<sup>40</sup> And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.<sup>41</sup> And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.<sup>42</sup> And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.<sup>43</sup> And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,<sup>44</sup> Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.<sup>45</sup> But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.<sup>46</sup> Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.<sup>47</sup> And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,<sup>48</sup> And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.<sup>49</sup> And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.<sup>50</sup> And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.<sup>51</sup> And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,<sup>52</sup> And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.<sup>53</sup> And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.<sup>54</sup> And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?<sup>55</sup> But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.<sup>56</sup> For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.<sup>57</sup> And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.<sup>58</sup> And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.<sup>59</sup> And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.<sup>60</sup> Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.<sup>61</sup> And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.<sup>62</sup> And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.
