¹A Psalm of David. Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.²Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:³Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;⁴Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;⁵Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.⁶The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.⁷He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.⁸The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.⁹He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.¹⁰He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.¹¹For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.¹²As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.¹³Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.¹⁴For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.¹⁵As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.¹⁶For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.¹⁷But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;¹⁸To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.¹⁹The LORD hath prepared his throne
