

<sup>1</sup>To the chief Musician upon Muthlabben, A Psalm of David. I will praise thee , O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.<sup>2</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.<sup>3</sup>When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.<sup>4</sup>For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.<sup>5</sup>Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.<sup>6</sup>O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.<sup>7</sup>But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.<sup>8</sup>And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.<sup>9</sup>The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.<sup>10</sup>And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.<sup>11</sup>Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.<sup>12</sup>When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.<sup>13</sup>Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:<sup>14</sup>That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.<sup>15</sup>The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.<sup>16</sup>The LORD is known by
