

¹Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.²Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.³A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.⁴Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?⁵Open rebuke is better than secret love.⁶Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.⁷The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.⁸As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.⁹Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.¹⁰Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.¹¹My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.¹²A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.¹³Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.¹⁴He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.¹⁵A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.¹⁶Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.¹⁷Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.¹⁸Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.¹⁹As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.²⁰Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.²¹As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.²²Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.²³Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.²⁴For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?²⁵The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.²⁶The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.²⁷And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.
