<sup>1</sup>To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart. There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.<sup>2</sup>God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.<sup>3</sup>Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.<sup>4</sup>Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.<sup>5</sup>There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.<sup>6</sup>Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.
