

¹To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:²A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;³A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;⁴A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;⁵A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;⁶A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;⁷A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;⁸A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.⁹What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?¹⁰I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.¹¹He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.¹²I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.¹³And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.¹⁴I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever:

nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.¹⁵That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.¹⁶And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.¹⁷I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.¹⁸I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.¹⁹For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.²⁰All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.²¹Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?²²Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?
