[1]Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)[2]And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:[3]Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,[4]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:[5]To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.[6]I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:[7]Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.[8]But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.[9]As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.[10]For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.[11]But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.[12]For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.[13]For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:[14]And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.[15]But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,[16]To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:[17]Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.[18]Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.[19]But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.[20]Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.[21]Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;[22]And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:[23]But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.[24]And they glorified God in me.
