

<sup>1</sup>For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water, <sup>2</sup>The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient, <sup>3</sup>The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator. <sup>4</sup>And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. <sup>5</sup>And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable. <sup>6</sup>When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand: <sup>7</sup>In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. <sup>8</sup>For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. <sup>9</sup>The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. <sup>10</sup>Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him : for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. <sup>11</sup>Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him : for the reward of his hands shall be given him. <sup>12</sup>As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths. <sup>13</sup>The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. <sup>14</sup>The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. <sup>15</sup>What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts. <sup>16</sup>Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: <sup>17</sup>Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts. <sup>18</sup>In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon, <sup>19</sup>The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers, <sup>20</sup>The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings, <sup>21</sup>The rings, and nose jewels, <sup>22</sup>The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, <sup>23</sup>The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails. <sup>24</sup>And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty. <sup>25</sup>Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war. <sup>26</sup>And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.
