

¹Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.²I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.³And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.⁴Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.⁵Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.⁶Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.⁷And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.⁸Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.⁹Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.¹⁰But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.¹¹Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.¹²I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.¹³I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.¹⁴Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.¹⁵Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.¹⁶For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.¹⁷Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.¹⁸But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.¹⁹But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.²⁰Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.²¹Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.²²All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.²³The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
