A 3x10 grid of 30 small clusters of black dots, each forming a different abstract pattern. The patterns vary in complexity, from simple vertical lines to more intricate, interconnected shapes.

A 3x3 grid of dots. The top row has three dots. The middle row has two dots, with the first position empty. The bottom row has two dots, with the first position empty.
